WELCOME

Island Skies is a collection of landscape and seascape paintings in acrylic, inspired by the colours, moods and light of Tasmanian skies.

Island Skies is a celebration of the wide variety of skies we have in Tasmania. While a clear blue sky is joyful to see, a moody sky holds so much more interest to me. My favourite sky is a broody one, the moment before a storm when the clouds gather up and prepare to burst. I also love that moment just after the storm has passed and a shaft of light breaks through the clouds onto the sea, sand, or land below.

"Once you have tasted the taste of sky, you will forever look up."
Leonardo da Vinci

Hannah Blackmore is a Fine Art painter based in Hobart, Tasmania. Creating landscapes and seascapes, her work allows her to continually explore new places and a variety of painting techniques, inviting the viewer to feel nature in different ways.

Hannah was born in Jersey in the Channel Islands, UK, and has made art all her life. Working in acrylic, her work has significantly evolved over the years since completing a Fine Art degree.

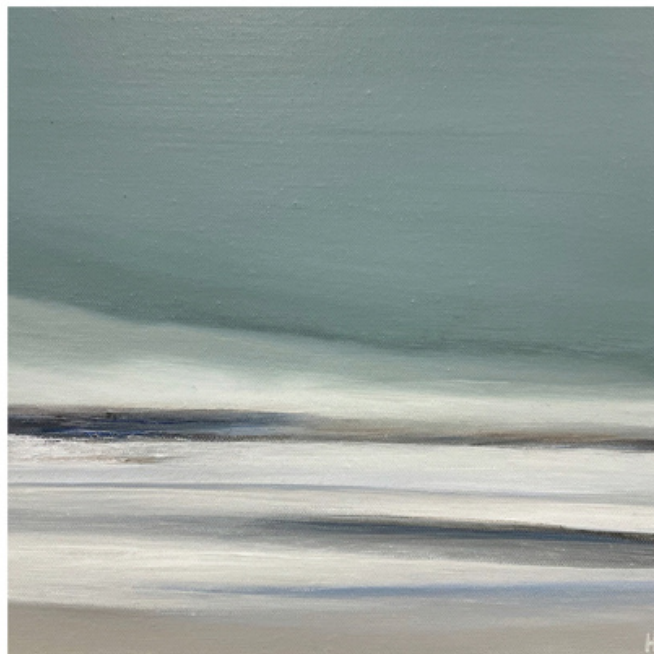

Hannah seeks inspiration from the environment around her, with coastal colours and moods being a focal point. As a resident artist of Salamanca Arts Centre, Hannah is an established member of the arts community in Hobart. She is passionate about sharing business skills with other artists with her membership site @ This Business of Art.
